

2020-21 DIVISION I MEN'S HOCKEY MEDIA KIT

NOTES

College hockey is in an era of unprecedented talent, parity and success on and off the ice. Consider:

- More than half of all teams (33) have reached the NCAA Tournament in the last five tournaments, and 13 of those have reached the Frozen Four
- A record 33% of all NHL players in 2018-19 developed in the NCAA ranks
- 92% of all NCAA Division I men's hockey players will earn a degree, among the top graduation rates of all NCAA men's sports

KEY DATES

Nov. 13	First games of the season
Dec. 26-Jan. 5	IIHF World Junior Championship (Edmonton, Alberta)
Feb. 14-21	USA Hockey's Hockey Week Across America

OVERTIME FORMATS

New in 2020-21, all NCAA regular-season games will feature a five-minute, three-on-three, sudden-death overtime. After that conferences (and in-season tournaments) may utilize a three-person shootout to determine a winner for conference standings. Non-conference games end in a tie after the five-minute overtime.
